

FOUR WINDS SKI AND SOCIAL CLUB

May 2015

Letter from the Editor

May is the last month of our Four Winds Ski Club season, as June 1 starts the new. Our end-of-season Blues Brothers-themed banquet went off well on April 26 (thankfully), as we had a last-minute venue change to Moretti's in Mt. Prospect (see pics inside). The new board was announced, effective June 1.

With our last month to complete, Four Wind volunteers are not only making some great new plans but are also offering one last social event, a casual bike/ride lunch starting on a May Saturday morning on the Fox Trail (see inside). Last year, over a dozen Four Winders had a ton of fun on this ride, so this is second annual, now heading north and a different restaurant.

Sooooo, now to some fun new plans: THE CLUB IS STARTING PLANS FOR A WESTERN TRIP TO COPPER MOUNTAIN, COLORADO in 2016! As well as planning to attend the annual Ski Seminar in Rosemont in May to get info on other possible ski trips. Fun, fun!

Much more info, and summer "Save the Dates" are inside this newsletter, so check it out!

2nd ANNUAL BIKING WITH SARGE

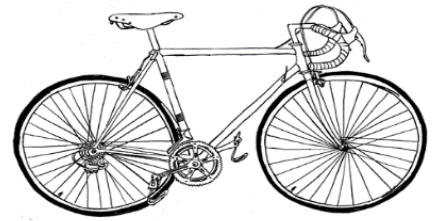

We will meet in East Dundee, there is plenty of parking around Bandito Barney's. We will head North on the Fox River trail to Algonquin which is about 6 miles. There is a park right off the path so bikers wanting to travel a bit further can continue North on the path while the others can rest at the park and wait for the other riders to pick them up on the way back. It's a very easy trail virtually flat so easy peddling. We should get back to E. Dundee and for those interested we can have lunch at the newly renovated Bandito Barney's and enjoy each other's company. Here's a link to the restaurant for directions and menu.

FOUR WINDS END-OF-SEASON BANQUET

Was April 26

Four Winds end-of-season banquet was a success, as 41-people enjoyed the Blues Brothers-themed event on Sunday, April 26 at Moretti's in Mt. Prospect. While a fun few came in full costume, everyone received a pair of sunglasses to commemorate their visit (and yes, we later found out they are 3-D glasses, so save for such movies! ☺)!

A buffet including salads, breads, chicken, stuffed shells and sausages was included for the low-low price of $15 per member. This included soft drinks and a sweet table PLUS games and prizes! Thank you Margaret P for the fun activities; Rich and Judy Stasch really seemed to enjoy in this picture!!

Gifts were given to the many volunteers that donate their time and efforts to the club. The board for the new season was announced, effective June 1 and will be listed in June newsletter,

IF you missed it, be sure you plan to come next Spring!

FOUR WINDS CAMPING & BIKING

WEEKEND IN AMISH COUNTRY

AUGUST 14 / 15, 2015

MIDDLEBURY K.O.A. - MIDDLEBURY, INDIANA

BIKING: WE HAVE A NUMBER OF DISTANCES YOU CAN BIKE, FROM TEN (10) MILES TO FIFTY (50) miles. YOUR BIKING WILL BE ON Six (6) road and trail routes. You will share with auto vehicles, horse drawn Amish buggies and bikers. Paved and packed gravel roads and trails. Great country sightseeing, from quilt patterns painted on their barns, cattle in the field, fields of wild flowers. If you bike the trails and roads from one end to the other, you will enter three (3) towns:

- Middlebury - this is the town that is in the middle of the abandoned Pumpkinvine railroad corridor. Which we will be biking. The campgrounds is four (4) miles from this starting point. In Middlebury is the Krider world fair garden, a must see place, 30 + varieties of pies @ Das Dutchman Essenhas, Varns and Hoovers hardware store, serving five (5) generations. A possible summer fest this weekend.
- Shippshewana - is the eastern end of the trail; this is the heart of the Amish country. You can bike around and see the furniture, quilting, bakery stores and natural food restaurants. You have to try their ice cream.
- Goshen - is the western end of the trail, 11.5 miles from Middlebury. Try to see the main street candy kitchen, great stuff. Find the old fashion south side soda shop, Amish furniture outlet, Sanders music hall, and the old bag factory.

CAMPING ACCOMMODATIONS
